

Pres Release - Paris, 28 March 2022

Hoche Avocats changes its governance and expands its Executive Committee with the addition of two new talents.

Hoche Avocats was founded over thirty years ago and has been headed by Eric Quentin since 1996. Jean Luc Blein joined him in 2004, and since then they have been running the firm together. Today, Hoche Avocats is changing its governance and expanding its Comex - the body in charge of operational management and implementation of the strategy defined by the management board - to include Frédérique Cassereau and Grine Lahreche.

Frédérique Cassereau, is a partner in Labour & Employment law. She joined Hoche Avocats in 2016. She is a former Secretary of the Conference of the internship (Paris Bar) and also lecturer at the Sciences Po Paris Law School (SPLS). She advises and litigates on all aspects of employment law. She has developed a recognised expertise in the cultural sector (performing arts companies, audiovisual companies, foundations, associations). Her other sectors of practice are mainly luxury goods, pharmaceutical and retail industries.

Grine Lahreche is a partner in the Mergers & Acquisitions / Private Equity department since 2018. He is graduated of Sciences Po Paris (2002) and a member of the Paris Bar since 2007. He works alongside managers, investment funds, large groups and SMEs on their sale and acquisition, LBO or capital reorganization projects. Part of his practice involves advising and assisting certain industrial clients operating in highly regulated sectors (health, NTIC, sports industry, public procurement, etc.).

For Eric Quentin and Jean-Luc Blein: "The arrival of Frédérique Cassereau and Grine Lahreche marks the beginning of a new chapter. We have led the firm, which was founded more than thirty years ago, in the belief that the ever-changing business law environment requires innovative solutions and high value-added responses. This expanded governance is in line with the continuity while allowing the firm to continue its development and to establish itself as a brand of quality and independence."

About Hoche Avocats:

Hoche Avocats is an independent, multidisciplinary French law firm founded more than 30 years ago.

The firm has nearly 80 lawyers and legal professionals from various backgrounds, including some twenty partners, who work on a daily basis in a national and/or international context to provide their clients with tailor-made support and legal advice in the major areas of business law and more particularly in mergers and acquisitions.
