Paris, 4 July 2025

Claire Gamain Joins Hoche Avocats to Lead Restructuring Practice

Paris, 4 July 2025 – Hoche Avocats is pleased to welcome Claire Gamain as head of the Restructuring practice.

Claire has been advising since 15 years underperforming companies, directors, shareholders, and investors, at every stage of the turnaround process, both through out-of-court and court-supervised proceedings. She also has extensive experience in the acquisition of distressed companies or their assets.

Her expertise extends to a wide range of industries, including in particular retail, hospitality, catering and real estate.

"Claire's experience and strong technical skills will strengthen our ability to deliver high-level restructuring advice to our clients," said Frédérique Cassereau, Jean-Luc Blein, and Eric Quentin, Managing Partners at Hoche Avocats. "Her arrival also creates new opportunities for collaboration in areas such as M&A, private equity, and restructuring transactions. We are delighted to welcome her in our firm."

Claire Gamain is a graduate of the University of Paris-Dauphine in business management and business law. Before joining Hoche Avocats, she practiced within Archers, DLA Piper, and Friehe Bouhénic law firms.

"I am pleased to join an independent and a multidisciplinary firm which fully matches my entrepreneurial project," said Claire Gamain. "Hoche Avocats incorporates highly regarded teams in M&A, private equity and commercial litigation—being areas offering strong synergies with the restructuring practice. I look forward to contributing to dynamic development of the firm."
